

Sara Stevens is a 22-year-old classical soprano, recipient of the American Protégé Award and has studied voice since the age of nine. At age eleven, she was invited to perform at Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall and has additionally performed at galas such as TEDWomen, ICMIC, and The Human Growth Foundation. Stevens has performed “The National Anthem” and “God Bless America” at MetLife Stadium, Citifield Stadium and Red Bull’s Arena. Most recently, she was a Colburn Fellow at SongFest and the Frankel Grant Recipient of Classic Lyric Arts. Stevens is currently in her senior year at Manhattan School of Music studying with Cynthia Hoffmann and coaching with Shane Schag. In 2023, Stevens will be playing the role of “Virtue” in Monteverdi’s L’incoronazione di Poppea at MSM and will be attending the Franz Schubert Institute in Austria.